BACKGROUND AND HISTORY

The Town of Pahrump is an unincorporated town and the population center of Nye County, located at the southernmost tip of the County, approximately 60 miles west of Las Vegas. Pahrump Valley was populated by American settlers beginning in the late 19th century, and early settlement was in the form of large ranch-style settlements, where ranchers grew cotton, alfalfa, and raised livestock. Interest in Pahrump increased during the 1960s, with the beginning of large-scale land development and speculation, and the introduction of telephone lines and a paved road into the Valley from Las Vegas.

As of July 1, 2011, the Nevada State Demographer recorded the population in Pahrump as 36,995. According to the 2010 Census, the median age of the population is 49.7 years, with 82.8 percent (30,156) age 16 and older and 25.4 percent (9,260) age 65 and older.
