27 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the following provisions in NRS 125.510(8):

 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

2 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, 3 that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the 4 terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

5 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the 6 court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the 7 child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the 8 court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual 9 residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual 10 residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a

15 planned move, attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to move the child 16 from this state. If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, the custodial parent shall, 17 before he leaves this state with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The 18 failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a 19 change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent.
